

The Brummels performed at Croton Trinity Bible Church on Sunday evening, June 21.

Croton

Concert features The Brummels

On Sunday, June 21 during the evening service, the Brummels, a Grant area gospel music band, performed an hour-long concert at Croton Trinity Bible Church.

The group, which plays traditional gospel songs and hymns, includes bass guitar player and singer Al Brummel, keyboardist Carol Brummel and electric guitar player Terry Griffes. The Brummels also feature a Power Point program that projects pictures and the song lyrics to allow the congregation to sing along. Al and Carol Brummel's grandson, Ryan Brummel, operated the projector.

Future evening concerts at the church are scheduled to feature the Faith

Gospel Team on July 5, Duwayne and Mary Ellen McLean on July 12, and the Chaffee Family, featuring 91-year-old Claire Chaffee and her sons, on July 19.

The free Sunday evening gospel concerts start at 5:30 p.m. Offerings help fund renovation projects at the historic church at 8198 S. Croton-Hardy Drive.
